Rhodes State College
Presents Employee Awards

LIMA, Ohio -- Rhodes State College employees were honored during its annual Employee Recognition Banquet on May 6, 2011, at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Lima.

Service awards were given to employees who have reached certain anniversaries of service. Those with five years of service were Janice Eilerman (Fort Loramie), Instructor, Nursing; Frank Kahle (Lima), Lecturer, Industrial Engineering Technology; Kristin Martin (Wapakoneta), Financial Aid Processor; Tracie Recker (Ottawa), Instructor/Academic Fieldwork Coordinator, Occupational Therapy Assistant Program; Lindsey Teman (Delphos), Financial Aid Advisor – Scholarships; David Yost (Fostoria), Lecturer, Nursing.

Those with 10 years of service were Jamie Bean (Lima), Teachers Aide, YMCA Child Care Center; Betty Blumenstein (Lima), Administrative Assistant, Human Resources; Omer Calvelage (Fort Jennings), Network Support Analyst, Information Systems; Vicki Christman (Lima), Teacher, Campus Preschool; Doris Engler (Alger), Registration & Records Representative; Jenny Fox (Elida), Cashier, Business Office; Rachel Shaneyfelt (Pandora), Lecturer, Center for Distance Education.

Those with 15 years of service were Sandra Connell (Lima), Lecturer, Dental Hygiene; Jim Dunlap (Delphos), Chair/Associate Professor, Allied Engineering Support Technology; Elizabeth Tracy (Lima), Chair/Professor, Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Those with 20 years of service were Damon Hughes (Kenton), Programmer/Systems Analyst, Information Systems; Matt Kinkley (Saint Marys), Executive Director, Workforce, Economic Development and Continuing Education; Thomas Knoedler (Findlay), Associate Professor, Physical and Biological Sciences; Sean Lause (Bluffton), Professor, Humanities; Diane Maloney (Lima), Chair/Associate Professor, Accounting, Financial Services & Real Estate; Roger Newhouse (Ottawa), Chair/Assistant Professor, Mechanical Engineering Technology; Sue Osmon (Lima), Clinical Support Services Specialist, Dental Hygiene; Paula Siebeneck (Ottawa), Coordinator, Public Relations.

Those with 25 years of service were Julia Ball-VonderEmbse (Ottawa), Assistant Professor, Dental Hygiene; Thomas Beery (Lima), Associate Professor, Humanities; Cynthia Buckland (Ottawa), Staff Accountant, Business Office; Rhonda Sparrow (Lima), Professor/Clinical Co-Coordinator, Nursing; Terri Wies-Haithcock (Lima), Coordinator, Corrections.

Those with 30 years of service were Letitia Hatfield (Spencerville), Chair/Associate Professor, Respiratory Care Program; Mary Ann Hovis (Ada), Interim Dean, Arts & Sciences; Will Wells (Lima), Interim Associate Vice President, Academic Affairs.

Along with recognition for long standing service, the Outstanding Faculty Leadership Award was presented to Angela Heaton (Russia), Chair/Assistant Professor, Physical Therapy Assistant. Sue Musto (Lima), Office Assistant, Faculty Support, received the Outstanding Support Staff Award. Bonnie King (Lafayette), Registrar received the Outstanding Professional/Administrative Leadership Award. Christine Joseph (Lima), Adjunct Lecturer, Nursing received the Outstanding Adjunct Faculty Award. The President's Award was presented to Paula Siebeneck (Ottawa), Coordinator, Public Relations.

Retirement honorees were also recognized. These included Jim Dunlap (Lima) Chair/Associate Professor, Allied Engineering Technology; Jan Klopp (Lima) Administrative Assistant, Instructional Services; and Diane Maloney (Lima) Chair/Associate Professor, Accounting, Financial Services and Real Estate.