Rhodes State Accepting Outstanding Alumni Nominations

LIMA, Ohio – Rhodes State College is now accepting nominations for the 2010 Distinguished Alumni Award. Nominations may be submitted by anyone, and there is no limit to the number of nominations an individual may make.

The Outstanding Alumnus/a award has been presented annually since 1986 to an alumnus/a who have distinguished themselves in both their profession and their community service activities. These accomplishments may emphasize professional, social, and religious or educational values. Past recipients represent a wide variety of area citizenship, leadership and professional excellence.

“We invite the public to help in identifying outstanding alumni who help put a face on the excellence of our graduates,” said Jacque Daley-Perrin, Vice President of Institutional Advancement. The recipient will be honored at the Rhodes State commencement ceremony on Thursday, June 10.

Those interested in nominating someone, can call the Rhodes State Institutional Advancement Office at (419) 995-8044 to receive a nomination packet, which is due Monday, March 22, 2010.
