

For Immediate Release
July 9, 2010

MEDIA CONTACT: Paula Siebeneck
(419) 995-8458

Rhodes State to Host One Stop Admissions Event

LIMA, Ohio -- Rhodes State College will host its first "One Stop Admissions Event" on Wednesday, July 28, from 9 a.m.-7 p.m. as part of a special recruitment day for Fall 2010 classes. This event, designed for students who plan to start classes on September 22, allows potential students to apply for Admission, complete Financial Aid, take Placement Testing and sign up for a New Student Orientation session and registration.

Persons who are interested in attending should pre-register at www.RhodesState.edu or call (419) 995-8320. Required materials for admissions and financial aid are listed on the website. In addition to Financial Aid and Admissions, representatives from Career Services, the Learning Centers, Disability Services, and Distance Education will also be present.

Academic advisors, admissions and financial aid personnel will be available throughout the event to answer questions regarding specific college-related issues and available programs.

###