Effective July 1, 2011, colleges are required to report certain statistics related to certificates eligible for Title IV federal aid. The reporting is to help consumers make informed choices about certificate programs, especially to understand the full cost of completing the certificate and the expected employment prospects from attaining the certificate. Find out more at www.RhodesState.edu/GainfulEmployment

Thank you for your interest in PSEOP at Rhodes State College.

If you have questions regarding PSEOP enrollment, call the program Coordinator at (419) 995-8423.

Post-Secondary Enrollment Options Program (PSEOP) Application 2013-2014

Rhodes State offers courses to qualified high school students interested in participating in the Post-Secondary Enrollment Options Program (PSEOP). This program is designed to allow Ohio students the opportunity to earn college credit while still in high school. To participate, a student must:

- secure the permission of his/her parents or legal guardian and a high school official
- meet the PSEOP admissions requirements
- complete and submit the required materials

Please note: Priority fall semester PSEOP admissions application deadline is June 1, 2013. Spring semester priority admissions deadline is Nov. 15, 2013.

Please submit collectively the following materials:

- Rhodes State PSEOP Admissions Application
- Official High School Transcript
- Standardized test results
- $25 non-refundable admissions application
- Recommendation Letter (Special Initiative only)

Financial Responsibility Acknowledgment – To Be Completed By Student and Parent:

The purpose of this section is to establish the responsibility for payment to Rhodes State College in the event that a student fails to complete a course.

I understand that if the course(s) are not completed successfully, I will be responsible for payment of tuition, fees, books and materials required for each course. Further, I understand that for selected courses, materials may be needed that must be provided at my own expense. I understand that the textbooks and materials provided are the property of the college and must be returned to the college. I also understand that written permission must be obtained from the high school counselor or other authorized official before withdrawing from any course(s). If I am a student in a non-public school, I understand that, should the state choose not to fund my participation, I will be responsible for payment of tuition, fees, books and materials required for each course.

By my signature, I give permission to participate and acknowledge financial responsibility.
