

For Immediate Release May 3, 2011

CONTACT: Melissa Thomas (419) 995-8423

Rhodes State Offering Classes in Putnam County Summer Quarter

LIMA, Ohio – Rhodes State College is proud to announce its Summer Quarter offerings held at the Putnam County Educational Service Center (ESC) in Ottawa. General Psychology (PSY-101) will be held on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 8:00-10:20am. American Cultural Diversity (SOC-132) will be held on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 10:30am-12:50pm. Both courses will be held June 27 through August 12. These courses are seven weeks long and part of the Ohio Transfer Module.

An Information Session for parents of high school students who may be interested in enrolling in this summer coursework will be held on Thursday, May 12, 6–7 pm in the Assembly Hall of the Putnam County ESC in Ottawa. Topics include: eligibility requirements, admission process, course content, and applicability for high school credit.

Those interested in attending the classes or information session, should contact Melissa Thomas at (419) 995-8423.