Rhodes State College Accepting Outstanding Alumni Nominations

LIMA, Ohio – Rhodes State College is now accepting nominations for the 2013 Outstanding Alumni Award. Nominations may be submitted by anyone. The Outstanding Alumni Award has been presented annually since 1988 to alumni of Lima Technical College or Rhodes State College who have distinguished themselves in both their profession and community service activities. These accomplishments may emphasize professional, social or educational values. The recipient will be honored at the Rhodes State commencement ceremony on Saturday, May 4, 2013.

“We are pleased to pay tribute and recognize those alumni who have great accomplishments and used their Rhodes State education to become fine stewards in their communities,” said Dr. Debra McCurdy, Rhodes State College President.

To nominate a graduate, go to <http://www.rhodesstate.edu/AlumniNomination> . All nominations are due March 22.
