Rhodes State College Named “Military Friendly” by G.I. Jobs Magazine

LIMA, Ohio -- G.I. Jobs, the premier magazine for military personnel transitioning into civilian life, has awarded Rhodes State College the designation of Military Friendly School. The 2012 Military Friendly Schools list honors the top 20 percent of colleges, universities and trade schools that are doing the most to embrace America’s military service members and veterans as students.

Rhodes State currently participates with four different VA benefit qualifications allowing veterans, veteran dependents, and active duty service members to use their federal education benefits at Rhodes including the Post 9/11 GI Bill, Montgomery GI Bill, Vocational Rehabilitation and Tuition Assistance.

Rhodes State’s staff works diligently to accommodate and cater to the unique needs of the country’s service men and women. The College is hosting a One Stop Admissions event on November 9 from 9am-8pm in which veterans will have their admissions fee waived and get answers to VA benefit questions.

The 1,518 colleges, universities and trade schools on this year’s list prioritize the recruitment of students with military experience. The 2012 list of Military Friendly Schools® was compiled through research and a data-driven survey of more than 8,000 schools nationwide.
