- b. Within ten (10) calendar days from receipt of the written grievance, the Vice President for Student Affairs shall notify the respondent and provide him/her with a copy of the written grievance.
- c. Within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of the grievance notification, the respondent shall submit to the Vice President for Student Affairs, a written response, which shall:
 - 1) Confirm or deny each fact alleged in the grievance;
 - 2) Indicate the extent to which the grievance has merit; and

- d. Within ten (10) calendar days of the receipt of the response from the respondent, the Vice President for Student Affairs shall call together the Grievance Review Panel unless the respondent accepts the desired resolution in which case the written grievance will be considered closed.

2. College Grievance Review Panel

The College Grievance Review Panel is responsible to review the facts and circumstances of the grievance. The review panel roles and membership include:

a. Hearing Officer Role

The Hearing Officer shall investigate or establish procedures for investigation in all grievances and serves as a review panel ex-officio member without the authority to vote.

b. Panel Chair Role

The Vice President for Student Affairs is responsible for ruling on the request. The Vice President for Student Affairs will notify the grievant and respondent of the ruling prior to the scheduled hearing.

4. Hearing Procedures – Grievance Review Panel

Hearings are conducted in order to review the facts and circumstances of the grievance. Although the procedural requirements are not as formal as those existing in criminal or civil courts of law, to ensure fairness the following procedures will apply:

a. Case File Review

Unless otherwise precluded by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and accompanying regulations, or other laws, the student grievant or respondent may review statements and other documentation relative to the grievance by sending a written request to the Vice President for Student Affairs at least three (3) calendar days prior to the scheduled hearing date.

b. Attendance of Respondent

Because the most accurate and fair review of the facts can best be accomplished when all parties are present, the grievant and respondent are expected to attend and participate at the hearing. If the grievant or respondent choose not to attend the hearing, he/she will be deemed to have waived the right to personally appear, the grievance will be reviewed as scheduled on the basis of the information available, and a decision will be made. Although no inference may be drawn against a grievant or respondent for failing to attend a hearing or remaining silent, the hearing will proceed and the conclusion will be based on the evidence presented. No decision shall be based solely on the failure of the grievant or respondent to attend the hearing or answer the grievance.

c. Attendance Limitations

Attendance at hearings is limited to those with information relative to the grievance or those requested to attend by the grievant, respondent, or Grievance Review Panel Chair. The Chair will take reasonable measures to assure an orderly hearing, including removal of persons who impede or disrupt proceedings.

d. Advisor

The student grievant, respondent and/or the College may have an advisor present at the hearing. The advisor may only counsel the grievant, respondent and/or the College and may not actively participate in the hearing, unless clarification is needed as determined by the Grievance Review Panel Chair.

e. Witnesses and Supporting Documentation

- 1) The student grievant, respondent and/or the College may submit notarized written statements, absent other clear evidence of authenticity; may invite relevant witnesses to attend, may ask questions of witnesses called by others, and will be notified of potential witnesses to be called.
- 2) Witnesses shall not attend the entire hearing, but will be called to present information by the Grievance Review Panel Chair at the appropriate time.
- 3) Pertinent records and supporting documentation may be accepted as information for consideration by the Grievance Review Panel at the discretion of the Panel Chair.
- 4) The Panel Chair may accommodate concerns for the personal safety, well-being, and/or fears of confrontation during the hearing by providing separate facilities, by using a visual screen, and/or by permitting participation by telephone, videophone, videoconferencing, videotape, and other means, where and as determined by the Vice President for Student Affairs to be acceptable.

f. Consultants

- 1) In cases requiring special expertise, the Vice President for Student Affairs may appoint individuals with relevant expertise to serve as consultants to the Grievance Review Panel.
- 2) The consultants may be present and provide information as called upon during the hearing, but will not vote.

g. Grievance Review Panel Quorum

- 1) A quorum of the Grievance Review Panel must be present to conduct a hearing, unless the grievant and respondent waive the quorum requirement in writing. A quorum for a hearing shall be no fewer than three (3) voting panel members and shall include no less than one (1) student member.
- 2) At the conclusion of the hearing, the panel members shall determine by a majority vote whether the grievance is substantiated.
- 3) In the event of a tie vote regarding the grievance, the Panel will continue to deliberate with regard to the grievance. If the Panel determines that exhaustive deliberations have occurred and a majority vote cannot be reached regarding the grievance, the respondent will be found not in violation of the policy for which the majority vote could not be reached.

h. Written Record

At the conclusion of the hearing, the Panel Chair will submit a written record of the Panel's decision to the Vice President for Student Affairs within ten (10) calendar days.

i. Notification of Decision

No more than thirty (30) calendar days after the receipt of the written record of the Panel's decision the Vice President for Student Affairs shall notify the grievant and respondent of the panel's decision. The letter shall inform the grievant and respondent of his/her right to appeal the Panel's decision.

5. Appeal of Grievance Review Panel Hearing's Decision

a. Within ten (10) calendar days after receipt of the Panel's decision, the grievant or respondent may appeal the Grievance Review Panel Hearing's decision by submitting a written notice to the Vice President for Student Affairs. Appeals received more than ten (10) calendar days after receipt or attempted delivery of the Panel's decision may be dismissed.

b. The written notice of appeal must include:

- 1) A brief statement of the grounds for the appeal, based on errors of fact or procedure;
- 2) Be signed and dated; and
- 3) A copy of the decision being appealed.

c. The Vice President for Student Affairs shall, within ten (10) calendar days, review the appeal, may choose to meet with the grievant and/or respondent, and respond in writing to all parties concerning the disposition of the appeal.

d. The Vice President for Student Affairs' appeal decision is final.

D. Access to Grievance Records

The grievant(s) or respondent may request information and records which are in the possession of Rhodes State College and which may bear upon the validity of the grievance. Consistent with state and federal law, and relevant College policies, the College may charge the requester for costs associated with the request including but not limited to costs for copying. In order to protect the privacy of persons not directly involved in the grievance, the College reserves the right to expunge names and any identifying information not directly relevant to the substance of the grievance from information or records supplied to the grievant or respondent. In general, materials relating to the grievance are confidential and may be made available, pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA 20 U.S.C. §1232g. et. seq.) and accompanying regulations.

E. Maintenance and Confidentiality of Grievance Records

All persons involved in the complaint/grievance procedure are expected to maintain confidentiality. State and federal laws govern the privacy rights of students. Any questions about the disclosure of information should be directed to the Vice President for Student Affairs. Grievance documents shall be maintained in the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs.
