

ADVANCED

Mitsubishi Certified Training Center at Rhodes State College

- Features PLC Basics (GX Works2), GX Works2 Programming, and HMI (GOT 1000 and GTWorks3)
- Certified instructors
- Standardized Mitsubishi coursework, as offered at Vernon Hills, IL
- Local training option, minimize

Apprenticeships

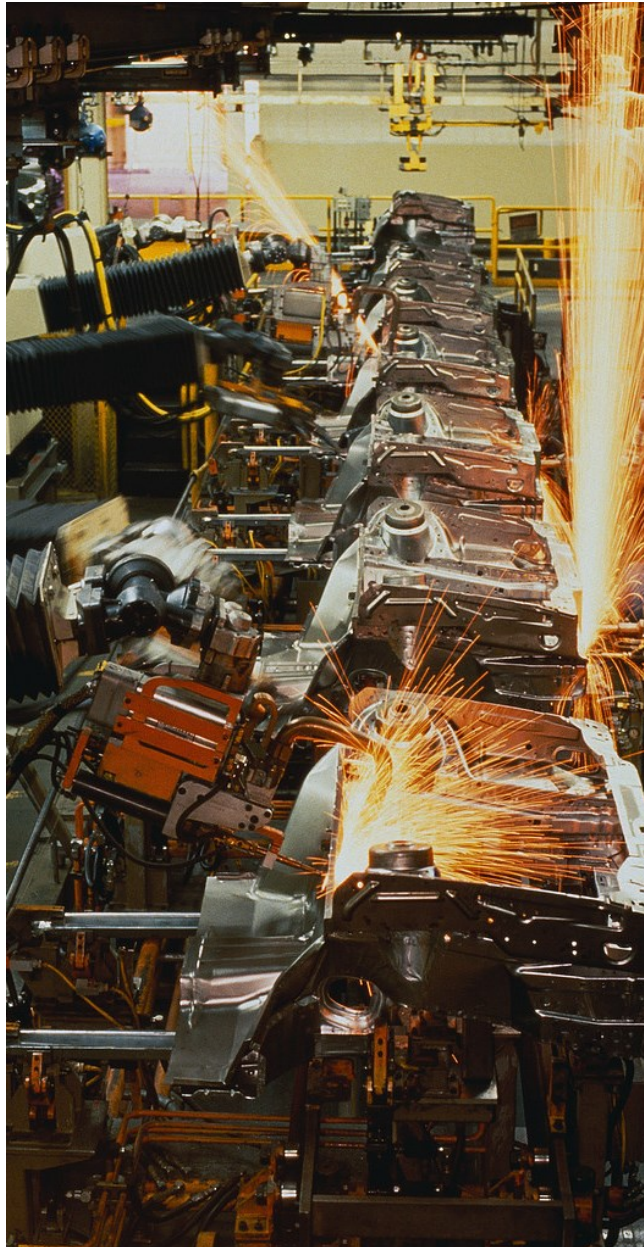

Rhodes State partners with your company to advance and develop your skilled trades employees.

- Electrical, Mechanical, Multi-skilled, Tool & Die, Millwright, Toolmaker and other programs available
- Day and evening classes
- Classroom and online coursework with hands-on labs
- Earn college credit toward

State of Ohio Registered Apprenticeships

Rhodes State can assist you in creating a DOL registered apprenticeship program to earn a journeyman's certificate

- Learn the on-the-job training and related instruction requirements
- Evaluate your current skilled trades employees

Career Pathways

- Assessment tools to assist you in candidate selection
- Evaluate prior academic and occupational experience to apply for college credit toward an associates degree
- Identify and close skills gaps with developmental coursework
- Explore pathways to a four-year degree

Tool & Die/Toolmaker Coursework

- Coursework available to build basic machining skills
- Coursework options include:
 - AutoCAD
 - CAM CNC Machining 1 & 2
 - Tool & Gage design
 - Precision layout and coordinate measuring
 - Mold Design
 - Mold Maintenance and troubleshooting

Manufacturing Engineering Technology

- Now available: Hybrid (online and hands-on delivery)
- Associates degree focused on concentrated manufacturing and maintenance skills
- Can customize to your specific needs
- Open-ended program entry and exit to accommodate varying

For More Information

Please contact Margo Meyer, who can advise you in more detail of these training opportunities. She can also discuss options to schedule group training