If a student does not meet Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements for two consecutive terms of attendance, the student's Title IV aid is placed on suspension status. One of the options for reinstatement is for the student to prove he/she can meet SAP without the use of Title IV aid (federal student aid). Rhodes State College cannot reinstate federal aid until the student has met the following criteria:

- For each term of review the student must achieve at least a term GPA of 2.0, an accumulative GPA in accordance with SAP and at least maintain a 67% completion rate of credit hours attempted each term.
- The tuition for the term(s) of review must be paid in full without Title IV aid (Pell Grant, SEOG, and Direct Stafford Loans) prior to the completion of that term.
- The student must pay for a minimum of three credit hours; however, more than three credits hours may be required to meet SAP students for GPA.
