

Use of College Facilities, 7.13

Chapter 7: General Administrative

Responsible Office: Human Resources and Business Office
Applies to: Faculty, Staff, Students and Members of the Public
Approved: 11/19/2024

Policy: The Use of College Facilities Policy is intended to ensure the effective use and enjoyment of the facilities of Rhodes State College (the "College"). College facilities are designed for the educational, co-curricular, extra-curricular and cultural functions of the College. Subject to policy and applicable law, designated areas are available by reservation for non-College activities to individuals or groups when such areas are not in use by the College and such use does not interfere with or disrupt College activities.

Guidelines:

I. Definitions:

- a. Facilities – College owned, rented, leased, or operated building, permanent structure, room, or indoor space that's available for rental as noted in the Use of College Facilities Procedure 7.13(a).

II. Policy Details:

The College is committed to preserving and protecting its facilities, students, guests, and employees, while ensuring the effective operation of its educational, business, and related activities. As such, the use of College facilities is subject to the procedures outlined in the Use of College Facilities Procedure 7.13(a).

The College will not consider the content of expressive activities when enforcing this Policy. Use of a College facility does not imply College endorsement of any expressive activity.

The user holds ultimate responsibility for the event, including all liability for any personal injury or property damage arising from it. The College reserves the right to take appropriate action as circumstances warrant.
